Generation 3 (con't)

Besides these, I find among his papers many others, that you may choose to peruse at your leisure, respecting alliance with France, of which he was in Congress the most zealous, and not the least powerful, advocate; the negotiations for peace; the instructions relative to both, which were drawn by him; reflections upon the report of the Secretary of the Treasury relative to the funding system, &c., &c., and which I will with pleasure furnish. The copy inclosed in intended for your own perusal. However, I should not object to your friend Mr. Strode seeing it; but as hitherto I have had, so now I have, reasons why I should not show his papers, or speak generally of the services of my father in the commencement of and during the Revolution. The evidences of his patriotism show that it was not less influential in directing and fixing the destinies of his country than it was bold and manly and honourable for himself".

Notes for Lucy W. Smith:

It is reported that Peter Baugh and wife Lucy W. Smith along with his sister Mary and her husband William Wyatt Smith (Lucy's brother) moved to Harrison County, Texas sometime after 1850. It is also reported that the area did not suit them and both couples returned to Alabama and/or Georgia.

Some of the party can be found in the 1860 US Census; William (without a spouse) living in Cusseta, Georgia and Lucy re-married and living with Moses Mays in Lee County, Alabama. It appears that the Baugh siblings have both expired by 1860. We find the grave of Mary Baugh Smith in the Cusseta, Alabama cemetery with a death date of 22 Nov 1854. We also find a grave of one Peter Baugh in Harrison County, Texas with a death date of 11 Jan 1857. Assuming these are our Baughs', we must conclude that Mary either didn't make it to Texas or died there and was transported back and that Peter died there. We also conclude that Lucy and William Wyatt came back between 1857 and 1860.

Notes for Nathaniel Beverley Tucker:

Nathaniel Beverley Tucker served for several years as a professor of law at William & Mary and was the author of several books on law and economy. From 1817 to 1833 he served as a Federal Circuit Court Judge in Missouri. His writing, certainly by today's standards, showed him to be a highly reactionary Virginia aristocrat. He is known for some works of fiction, including George Balcombe (1836), a realistic picture of contemporary Virginia and Missouri. His romance, The Partisan Leader (1836), told of events to occur in 1849 and was probably a propaganda piece intended to influence the election of 1836 against Martin Van Buren, but whose political philosophy in Lee County, Alabama. She was born in Sep 1864 in Alabama. She died in 1924 in El Dorado, Union County, Arkansas.

90. JUDITH B<sup>6</sup> CULP (Cynthia W.<sup>5</sup> Smith, William Wilkinson<sup>4</sup> Smith, Francis<sup>3</sup> Smith Jr., Colonel Francis<sup>2</sup> Smith, Captain Nicholas<sup>1</sup> Smith) was born in 1835 in South Carolina. She died on 19 Jul 1870 in Henry County, Alabama. She married Isidor Mendheim, son of Prussian Mendheim and Marianne Mendheim on 24 Dec 1851 in Harris, Georgia. He was born about 1825 in Cüstrin, Prussia. He died on 20 Jan 1891 in Dothan, Henry County, Alabama.

Notes for Judith B Culp:

Judith was born in 1836 in South Carolina. She married Isidor Mendheim on December 24, 1851 in Harris County, Georgia (the same county where her parents were married 23 years earlier). Judith and Isidor moved to Henry, County Alabama and had five children between 1853 and 1864. Judith died at a young age (33) in 1870 from unknown causes.

From the Henry County Register (Abbeville, Alabama Weekly Newspaper), Friday, July 23, 1870

'DEATH - Near this place on Monday morning last, at 5 o'clock, Mrs. Judith B., wife of Dr. I. Mendheim, in the 33rd year of her age.'

Notes for Isidor Mendheim:

We are confident Isidor arrived on on the Howard October 14, 1841 but, the first reference to Isidor we have found in the United States is an ad placed in the Augusta Chronical in November 1841. Benjamin and Isidor placed an ad in the Augusta Chronical looking for their brother Ernest (Emil) who was reported to have been living in the area in 1840-1841.

Isidor married Judith Culp on Christmas eve 1851 in Harris County GA. The record was transcribed as:

"Mendkins, (?) Isador Judith Culp 12/24/1851"

Apparently Isidor and Judith moved relatively quickly to Henry County, Alabama as their first born William P. Mendheim was born in 1853 in Alabama. Isidor and Judith went on to have five (5) children: William, Rozelia (married William Kirkland), Isidore W., Albert and Belton. The 1860 Federal Census shows Isidor (now a dentist) with wife Judith and four children; William age 7, Rozelia age 5, Isidor (IW) age 3 and Albert age 1 living in Henry County, Alabama. Judith's brother Henry B. Culp, age 16, was at their home.

Isidor signed up for the CSA's Alabama 37th Volunteer Regiment at Auburn, Alabama on March 22, 1862. He was part of Company A that was nicknamed the "Henry Volunteers" as many of the men in Company A were from Henry County. Isidor was discharged on August 6, 1862 in Columbus, Mississippi due to medical reasons. It states that he had Rheumatism and had not been of service for the previous 60 days. The description of Isidor by the discharging officer stated "He was born in Prussia in the State of __ is 37 years of age, 5 feet 4 inches high, fair complexion, blue eyes, light hair, and by occupation, when enlisted, a dentist." Further it states, "I certify that I have carefully examined the said Isidore Mindheim of Captain Green's Company and find him incapable of performing the duties of a soldier because of Rheumatism - He has not done any service three months. I recommend his discharge." His second wife, Nancy Jane Mathews Mendheim, subsequently received a pension as a result of Isidor's service to the Confederate States of America.

Judith died on July 19, 1870 at 33 years of age of unknown causes. Judith was not present for the 1870 census (Henry County, Alabama) but William's future wife, Minerva Roberts, and a couple of workers were there with the rest of the family. After Judith's death Isidor married Nance Jane Mathews. A reference of his marriage to Nancy Jane was published in 1873, which stated:

'MARRIED - A short time since, our genial friend Dr. I. Mendheim, suddenly disappeared from our quite little town, and we had just began to wonder what had become of him when he returned, looking so well he hardly resembled himself. And he did not return alone, but brought with him a young and blushing bride that he captured over about Clopton. Well, Doctor, we wish you much joy; may you and the wife live long and prosper, and may - and may - well, never mind.' - Henry County Register (Abbeville, Alabama Weekly Newspaper) Friday, February 14, 1873

In approximately 1880 Isidor, Nancy and their children apparently moved to Walton County, Florida for a brief period of time. Isidor and Nancy are listed in the 1880 Federal Census of both Houston County, Alabama (with Isidor and Judith's children as well as William's children) and Walton County, Florida (with Isidor and Nancy's children). Isidor and Nancy had six (6) children: Hortense, Herman, Gillispe, Irene, Karl and Colo.

Isidor, along with William P., William J. Kirkland (Rosa's husband), IW (Isidore White) and Albert filed for homestead property. Isidor filed for property located in what is now Dothan, Alabama and received the title in 1891. Mr. Kirkland filed for property adjacent to Isidor while IW filed for property close by in Dothan. William filed in Geneva County, Alabama, and Albert filed in Holmes County, Florida.

In 1887 Isidor and Nancy were two of the nine founding members of the First Baptist Church of Dothan, Alabama.

In 1891 a reference to Isidor's death was written in a local Dothan Alabama newspaper stating:

'Death: Dr. I. Mendheim passed quietly away at his home one mile south of Dothan on last Tuesday morning. We do not know his exact age, but he was one of the oldest citizens of this country, and almost every body knew him. He was for a long time a successful Dentist at Abbeville. A few years ago when his manhood had withered away, he moved to the "piney woods" and settled on a little farm near here before Dothan was known. He has for the past few years been an object of pity, and to see him staggering about the streets, jerking with old age, and drawn over, would attract the sympathy and draw tears from anyone. He was a consistent member of the Baptist Church and loved his God. He was known by hundreds of people all over this country who will remember how he looked in his declining years. He has been known as "old Doctor Mendheim" for the last 25 years or longer. Such was his title before the writer outgrew the swaddling clothes of an infant. But, alas! 'tis done! And Dr. Mendheim is no more-no more on earth. May he rest with Jesus, and never know sorrow again, are the wishes that a thousand souls will join the Siftings in making today. He died poor in worldly goods, but the true riches are yet to come, and the day of his life has just begun to dawn, for "to live in Christ, and die, is gain".' - Wire-Grass Siftings (Dothan, Alabama Weekly Newspaper) Thursday, January 22, 1891

Notes for Cynthia Beverley Tucker:
RICHMOND TIMES DISPATCH
OCTOBER 25 1908

After a protracted illness, which for a week past had been extreme, Mrs. Cynthia Beverley Tucker Coleman died at her residence in Williamsburg, Va., yesterday, in the seventy-seventh year of her age. Mrs. Coleman was the eldest child of Judge N. Beverley Tucker (professor of law in William and Mary College, and author of the "Partisan Leader", and other works) and of Lucy Anne Smith, daughter of Brigadier-General Thomas Adams Smith, U.S.A. She married first, July 8, 1852, Henry Augustine Washington, of Westmoreland county, Va., professor of history and political economy in the College of William and Mary and editor of the first edition of the writings of Thomas Jefferson. He died in Washington, D.C., February 28, 1858. The two children of this marriage died in infancy.

Mrs. Washington married, secondly, October 29, 1861, Dr. Charles Washington Coleman, of Williamsburg, Va. Of the children of this marriage, three sons and one daughter survive- Charles Washington, N. Beverley Tucker, George Preston and Elizabeth Beverley Coleman. Dr. Coleman died September 15, 1894.

Mrs. Coleman was one of the founders and incorporators of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities, a charter member of the Society of Colonial Dames of America in the State of Virginia, and ever active in public work of a historical nature.

Funeral services will be held in Bruton Parish Church, Monday, October 26th at noon. The pall-bearers will be from the immediate family connections, including Mrs. Coleman's sons.

Notes for Henry Augustine Washington:
Henry married Cynthia Beverly Tucker (1832-1908) in 1852 and the couple had two children before Henry was killed in 1858 on the accidental discharge of an "air-gun".

Henry Augustine Washington, who was born in Westmoreland County, Virginia, in 1820 and died young in Washington in 1858, was deeply imbedded in the kinship network that was Virginian intellectual and political society. He was a Washington, itself a comprehensive legacy; he married a daughter of Beverley Tucker; he edited the first systematic edition of Jefferson's papers; he assumed Thomas Dew's chair of History, Political Economy and International Law at the College of William and Mary and prepared Dew's history lectures for press in 1853. But the striking fact of Washington's intellectual career was his attempt to fashion a skeptical appreciation of his Virginian inheritance.

Washington was persuaded that the nineteenth century was formulating a newly detached and scientific historical understanding. "Never before," he observed in 1852, "has such immense erudition, enlightened skepticism and patient, laborious and comprehensive learning been brought to bear on this [history] or any other subject. The result has been almost startling. Stale common-places have been refuted, consecrated errors exposed- established dogmas shaken-ancient rubbish removed-a full broad light thrown upon things which have been hitherto enveloped in impenetrable myth and fable." The heroes of this historical revolution were Guizot, Niebuhr and Macaulay; and in America there was Bancroft. One feels Washington aspired to be for Virginian history what Niebuhr was for ancient Rome, an aspiration truncated by ill health and an accident with an air gun that propelled a bullet through Washington's skull. It was to be a revolution of documents carefully preserved and located, but also of theory and sociological analysis;

Notes for Elmore W. Culp:

ELMORE W. CULP. (From "Centennial history of Arkansas)

No history of El Dorado would be complete without extended reference to Elmore W. Culp so closely and prominently was he associated with the material progress, the Intellectual upbuilding and the moral development and advancement of the city. He was long an outstanding figure in business circles by reason of the fact that he was one of the founders and promoters of the Arkansas Wholesale Grocery Company. His birth occurred in Salem, Lee county, Alabama, January 26, 1862, his parents being William B. and Nancy Olivia (Murphy) Culp. The father was born in the Asheville district of North Carolina, while the mother's birth occurred in the Spartanburg district of South Carolina. The grandfather in the paternal line was Dr. William A. Culp, a practicing physician, while William B. Culp, father of Elmore W. Culp, was for many years one of the prominent lawyers of Montgomery, Alabama. He died, however, in 1864, during the progress of the Civil war, of wounds sustained on the battle fields while aiding the Confederacy. Like most of the prominent southern families the Gulpes lost their fortunes in the struggle and William B. Culp thus left the members of his household without financial resources. His widow and their three children returned to the old home of her father. Captain Thomas F. Murphy, and there the children were reared to adult age. The daughter, who was the eldest of the three children, married a station agent and telegraph operator, who taught telegraphy to Elmore W. Culp when he was but a mere boy. While he was but twelve years of age, a barefoot boy, having had but limited advantages, he was left to take charge of the office while his brother-in-law went on a vacation. He acquitted himself splendidly in the discharge of the heavy responsibilities which devolved upon him in this connection and when he had completed his apprenticeship in the study of telegraphy he was given an office and rose to the important position of train master.

In 1891 Mr. Culp came to El Dorado on the first official train that made its way into the town following the completion of the Camden & Alexandria Railroad between Camden and El Dorado, now a part of the Iron Mountain system. He was placed in charge of the station here and remained in the position for eleven years. He was a most capable, courteous and obliging official and no one that has occupied the position has ever been more popular with the patrons of the office. In 1902 he resigned on account of failing health and in the same year, in company with R. A. Faulkner, he engaged in the wholesale feed, grain and heavy groceries business. Some time afterward Mr. Faulkner sold his interest to the Ritchie Grocery Company of Camden and for three years Mr. Culp was associated with the Ritchie Grocery interests, also retaining his connection with the El Dorado business. He then sold out and with three others, Ocie Nelms, now deceased, L. L. DeCou and W. E. McRae, established the Arkansas Wholesale Grocery Company of El Dorado. Of this company Ocie Nelms was made president with Mr. Culp as general manager. Mr. Nelms died in November, 1913, and Mr. Culp succeeded him in the presidency, in which capacity he continued to serve to the time of his death two years later. He was a man of unquestioned integrity and enterprise in business affairs, sound and deliberate in his judgment, and actuated at all times by a most progressive spirit. He put forth every effort to please his patrons, recognizing that the good word of a customer is the best possible advertisement. Moreover, the integrity of his business methods was never called into question and all who knew him recognized the fact that his prosperity came from close application, indefatigable energy, thorough reliability and up-to-date business methods.

On the 21st of November, 1888, Mr. Culp was married to Miss Helen Preston Nelms, of Salem, Alabama, the daughter of John I. Nelms, who was a well known planter of the Salem district. Mr. and Mrs. Culp became parents of four children, of whom three are living: Lide C, who is employed by the Arkansas Grocery Company; John E., the president of the Arkansas Wholesale Grocery Company; Carrie, now deceased; and Erin H., at home.

Mr. Culp was a faithful follower of Masonic teachings and also belonged to the Knights of Pythias. He was active in civic affairs and for some years served as a member of the city council. He held membership in the Baptist church ;in(l served as one of the deacons. He contributed generously to the support of the church and did everything in his power to advance its growth and extend its influence. His opinions were highly regarded in the councils of the church and in relation to public affairs as well. He was a man of kindly, genial nature and generous disposition, who gave freely toward ameliorating the hardships of life for the unfortunate. While a most prominent merchant and business man he was also closely associated with the moral and spiritual uplift of El Dorado and he left the impress of his influence for good upon all with -whom he came in contact.

Notes for William P. Mendheim:

William was born in 1853 in Henry County, Alabama. William is listed in the 1870 census of Henry County, Alabama (along with Isidor's other children at the time) as is Minerva Roberts, his future wife. William and Minerva were married in Santa Rosa County, Florida on March 19, 1874. William and Minerva had four (4) children: Edward, Ella, Oscar and Henry.

Generation 7 (con't)

Minerva apparently died within a year of delivering their youngest child Henry (possibly while giving birth). Henry was born in March 1879 and by the 1880 Henry County, Alabama census, William along with three of his children (Ed, Ella and Oscar) were living with Isidor. William is listed as a widower and Henry had been adopted by the C.S. Kincey family. Sometime after 1880 and before 1990 Ed went out on his own; it is reported that Ella died; and Oscar was "taken in" by the William McKissick family.

William applied for a homestead in Geneva County, Alabama on January 17, 1889 stating he took possession of the property in 1885. On March 14, 1891 Sarah L E Mendheim ("widow of William P Mendheim") filed final papers for the homestead claim and the "homestead patent" was issued January 18, 1892. The property was located in High Falls, Geneva County, Alabama. Ed (Charles Edward) and his family lived in Geneva county close to, if not on, the homestead property.

Notes for Beverley Tucker MD:

Dr. Beverley Tucker, M.D.

Dr. Beverley Tucker, who since 1892 has engaged in the practice of medicine and surgery at Colorado Springs, where the name has long figured as a synonym for most efficient professional service, was born in Richmond, Virginia, in 1867. His father, Beverley St. George Tucker, was a native of Williamsburg, Virginia, and was fifty-five years of age when he passed away in 1894. He was the son of Judge Nathaniel Beverley Tucker of Virginia, who was a prominent lawyer of his day and was appointed United States district judge in the western circuit by President Pierce. The family is among the oldest and most prominent in the Old Dominion, the great-grandfather of Dr. Tucker of this review having been a half brother of John Randolph, of Roanoke.

Dr. Beverley Tucker was only two years of age at the time of the removal of the family to Marshall, Missouri, where he began his education in the public schools, and later he pursued a high school course in Colorado Springs following the establishment of the family residence in this city. He afterward entered the University of Virginia at Charlottesville and was graduated in 1889 on completing the medical course. In further preparation for a professional career he went to New York and entered Columbia College, where he did post-graduate work until April, 1890. He afterward spent eighteen months as interne at Randall's Island Hospital and thus gained broad and valuable knowledge and experience such as could never be acquired as quickly in any other way as in hospital practice. Upon his return to Colorado Springs he entered upon practice in connection with his father and the partnership was maintained until the father's death. Since 1892 Dr. Beverley Tucker has continuously practiced in Colorado Springs, covering a quarter of a century, and his marked ability has placed him in the front rank among the representatives of the profession.

On the 24th of June, 1896, in Oskaloosa, Iowa, Dr. Tucker was united in marriage to Miss Martha J. Wright and they have a daughter, Martha Christina. The religious faith of the doctor and his wife is that of the Episcopal church. Fraternally he is connected with the Masons and he also belongs to Colorado Lodge, No. 309, B. P. O. E. His political endorsement is given to the democratic party, and while he keeps well informed on the questions and issues of the day and is interested in all matters of progressive citizenship, he finds it necessary to concentrate his efforts and attention largely upon his professional duties, which are constantly growing in volume and importance. He keeps in touch with the trend of thought and progress along professional lines as a member of the El Paso County Medical Society, of which he has served as president, as a member of the Colorado State Medical Society and as a member of the American Medical Association.

Notes for William Oscar Mendheim:

Oscar (William Oscar) Mendheim was born February 19, 1875 to William and Minerva Mendheim. His mother died when he was about 4 years old. His father apparently wasn't up to the task of raising small children alone since Oscar was taken in and raised by William and Catherine McKissick. Oscar married Jesse Mae Olliff and they had 15 children . Four of the children died as infants and the remaining 11 made it to adulthood. He lived in Houston County most of his life, first in Ashford and later in Dothan.

Oscar was my grandfather and all ready an "old man" (72 years old) when I was born. I was able to spend time with him though as he didn't die until 1972, just before my first child was born. In the later years of his life, he refused to have cataracts removed and went blind from them. Although blind his mind was very sharp until the very end. He lived a remarkable span of our historical times, from Civil War reconstruction and the horse and buggy days to having men land on the moon!

Notes for Jessie Mae Olliff:

Oscar and Jessie Mendheim settled near Ashford, Alabama where they farmed. William and Jessie Mendheim were the parents of fifteen (eleven into adulthood) children. By 1950 they had relocated to Dothan, Alabama. Jessie suffered a stroke in the early 1960's and finally succumbed on September 19, 1964. Both Jessie and Oscar are buried at Bluff Springs Baptist Church cemetery near Ashford, Alabama.
