Notes for William Harvey Olliff:

William was born on March 24, 1820 in Bulloch County, Georgia. On July 4, 1846, William Olliff married Eleanor Caroline Tyner of Dooly County, Georgia. Eleanor was born on July 6, 1828 in Georgia and is the daughter of Simeon Tyner and Hester Ann (Southwell) Tyner. In 1850, William and Eleanor Olliff were living next to William's father, Benjamin Olliff, in Dooly County, Georgia. Around 1851, William and Eleanor Olliff moved to about six miles east of Fort Gaines, Georgia. After several years, William decided that the soil was worn out on his farm and around 1856 he and his family moved about twelve miles further east near Edison, Georgia where they established what was later known as the "Old Homeplace." William and Eleanor Olliff were the parents of eight children.

Eleanor had already lost two brothers who died for the Confederacy and the draft was extended to men who were sixteen years of age. In 1863, their son Ben was drafted but the family provided information that he was only thirteen at the time (declaring Ben to be two years younger than he actually was). By stating his age to be younger, Ben avoided almost certain service in the Confederate Army in 1864. On July 25, 1863, William Olliff, Sr. was drafted at the age of forty-three leaving his wife and seven children at home to manage on their own. William served in Company "H" of the 22nd Georgia Battalion in General Joseph E. Johnson's Army. He was sent to the General Hospital in Savannah, Georgia on August 16, 1863 from his duty station at Thunderbolt, Georgia. On December 11, 1863, he was again ordered to the hospital, this time at Whiteville, Georgia. Eleanor must have suffered during this time, as she learned that her brother-in-law, T. J. Carnes had died in Knoxville, Tennessee on November 29, 1863 and that her husband was sick in the hospital. In January and February of 1864, William Olliff, Sr. was sick in quarters at Fort Bartow, Georgia. In late 1864, General Sherman began his purge of Georgia arriving at nearby Savannah on Christmas Day of 1864. William was serving in Georgia during this time frame and was paroled on May 3, 1865. He was shown in a list of the sick of Elliot's Brigade, Anderson's Division, Stewart's Corps.

When William arrived home in 1865, he learned of more tragedy within his family as two of his children (Mary and Joseph) had died of disease on October 20, 1864 and a third had narrowly avoided death. William Harvey Olliff died on September 12, 1888 and was buried in the Wesley Chapel Church Cemetery. This church and its cemetery are located on land donated by Eleanor's father. After William's death, Eleanor lived with her daughter and son-in-law, Everett and Hester Bass, at the family "Homeplace" where William and Eleanor had lived for many years. In 1900, Eleanor was living with her daughter, Hettie, in Calhoun County, Georgia. Eleanor died on December 15, 1902 and was buried in the Wesley Chapel Church Cemetery. #### Notes for Jessie Mae Olliff:

Oscar and Jessie Mendheim settled near Ashford, Alabama where they farmed. William and Jessie Mendheim were the parents of fifteen (eleven into adulthood) children. By 1950 they had relocated to Dothan, Alabama. Jessie suffered a stroke in the early 1960's and finally succumbed on September 19, 1964. Both Jessie and Oscar are buried at Bluff Springs Baptist Church cemetery near Ashford, Alabama.

Notes for William Oscar Mendheim:

Oscar (William Oscar) Mendheim was born February 19, 1875 to William and Minerva Mendheim. His mother died when he was about 4 years old. His father apparently wasn't up to the task of raising small children alone since Oscar was taken in and raised by William and Catherine McKissick. Oscar married Jesse Mae Olliff and they had 15 children . Four of the children died as infants and the remaining 11 made it to adulthood. He lived in Houston County most of his life, first in Ashford and later in Dothan.

Oscar was my grandfather and all ready an "old man" (72 years old) when I was born. I was able to spend time with him though as he didn't die until 1972, just before my first child was born. In the later years of his life, he refused to have cataracts removed and went blind from them. Although blind his mind was very sharp until the very end. He lived a remarkable span of our historical times, from Civil War reconstruction and the horse and buggy days to having men land on the moon!
