Generation 3 (con't)

Notes for John Tyler Dudley:

John T. Dudley was born 28 Oct 1892 in Geneva County, Alabama. He first married Gussie Jackson and they had three sons (Lavoid, J.T. and Jack). Gussie died in 1921 and John T. married my maternal grandmother, Cora Alabama Spooner Hudspeth, in 1922 (after her first husband John M. Hudspeth died). He and Cora had 2 children, my mother Johnnie B. and an infant son that died shortly after birth. After divorcing Cora, John T. moved to Marianna, Florida and married Claudia Bell Kingry in 1932. They had two children (Bennie Joe and Mary Sue). John T. died in Marianna, Jackson County, Florida 05 Aug 1977 at 84 years of age. John T ran a dry goods store in Marianna for many years before his death.

Notes for Cora Alabama Spooner:

Cora was quite the character. I suppose being married four times (and only 1 died on her) is probably an indication. She ran a small grocery store on the southeast corner of the intersection of Lafayette and Cherry streets in Dothan as a way to provide for her family after she left the country. After she and her last husband split up, she re-took the name Dudley because her last child (my mother) Johnnie B. was a Dudley and "Mama" didn't want her growing up with a different last name. Our fondest story about Mama is after "professional" wrestling came to television, she would "watch" it by turning her chair with her back to the TV and grabbing an occasional glance because it was too violent to watch the other way. She always had a pecan pie for me when I was growing up!
